

Branston Bulletin: 20.09.24

This week's events...

Another busy week at BJA, which has included our newly-voted-in School Councillors (2 from each class) starting their roles which includes 'Tweet the Week'. In each Friday Celebration Assembly, the School Councillors decide what they want me to 'tweet' about the happenings in their classroom that week. You can read what they write by following us on Twitter/X. Go to @BranstonJunior to find us! The School Councillors have also been tasked with trying to find good places to go to ask for potential raffle prizes for this year's Christmas Fair.

This week we have also had the photographers in, taking individual photos.

Mr Pyburn's E-Safety tips!

Age restrictions on games / PEGI Ratings information for parents.

As we start the new academic year we wanted to remind parents around age ratings on games. The Lincolnshire Stay Safe Partnership has created a parent factsheet which can be found on our school website at: <https://tinyurl.com/ycy48bjz>

Within the document is a link to a fabulous video created by Billingham Primary school last year about games age ratings: <https://tinyurl.com/49ef8vj4>
