

Branston Bulletin: 6.12.24

This week's events...

I'm not sure I ever start a weekly Bulletin without saying 'it has been a busy week', but this week has certainly been jam-packed full !

The Year 3/4 have been continuing with their rehearsals and I can't wait to see their finished performances next week! Our Year 3 children went to Branston Infant Academy this week to watch the dress rehearsal of their Christmas production, and the Year 2's will be coming to watch ours next week.

We have been busy practising this week, for our Carol Service and are looking forward to it taking place today (6.12.24). We have also had an absolutely superb WOW Day by visiting The Deep. Huge thanks to Miss Perkins for organising and all staff and parent volunteers who made it possible by going on the visit too.

Mr Pyburn's E-Safety tips! – Setting up online gaming for a safe experience for your children.

An interesting read from www.internetmatters.org; two families share their experiences of setting up their children's consoles so that they were safe for online play. Well worth a read if you and your children participate and enjoy online gaming:
